KEY TO ZONING MAP SYMBOLS

C - 2 Community Business Center.

The C-2 District is designed to provide facilities for both shopping and business needs for large segments of the city outside the central core. Such districts would be located with access to main highways and include office employment centers. The remainder of the strip commercial development not mapped as C-1 Districts would be classified as C-2 Districts. Normally the C-2 District would be tributary to large residential areas and would permit development to medium bulk proportions. It is within this district that designed shopping centers would be encouraged, although they might be developed on a smaller scale in C-1 Districts.

C - M - 2 Commercial-Light-Manufacturing.

The C-M Districts (C-M-1, C-M-2, and C-M-3) are intended to provide sites for heavy commercial and light manufacturing activities employing large numbers of people and requiring some heavy machinery under controls which would minimize any adverse effect on other nearby more restrictive districts. Heavy truck traffic and loading and unloading operations are expected to be characteristic of these districts. The three C-M Districts will provide a varying schedule for both density and height controls. They will be mapped throughout the city, embracing areas used for low density warehousing as well as sections of the city presently improved with both high and medium density buildings in warehousing, light manufacturing, office, and automotive usage. New dwellings are not permitted; however, certain additions or enlargements may be made to existing dwellings.

R - 5 - B and R - 5 - D General Residence.

The R-5 Districts (which include R-5-A, R-5-B, R-5-C, and R-5-D) are designed to permit a flexibility of design by permitting in a single district all types of residential development, provided they conform with the height, density, and area requirements established for these districts. Within the R-5-B district a medium height and density, and within the R-5-D a relatively high density, is permitted. The height of R-5-B structures is limited to 60 feet, to R-5-D, 90 feet and 8 stories. In R-5-B structures, lot occupancy, of buildings is limited to 60 percent; in R-5-D the limit is 75 percent.

BOB McCORMICK OUR SPEAKER

Most surprising thing he found in Washington on his return from Europe was the restoration of Foggy Bottom, Bob McCormick, NBC Network News commentator, told members of the Association at our May meeting, held in Briggs-Montgomery School Auditorium, May 19.

What he found in Foggy Bottom, Bob said, was indeed a far cry from the old days of gang wars waged by the "Apaches" and the "Mohawks" in the Bottom in the wild old days.

Bob said our building activity in Foggy Bottom reminded him of the successful restoration of devastated East German cities after World War II. He cited Frankfurt as an example -- there not only new buildings but whole new streets were built within a week's time. Like Foggy Bottom, Bob said the Germans preserved as much of old structures as they could. But in what they did new startling modern architecture predominated.

Historic St. Stephen's...

By Our Church Editor

St. Stephen's Church, that sturdy red brick landmark at the Southeast corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and 25th Street, like all of Foggy Bottom, has had the urge to renovate. The charming old rectory adjoining the church on Pennsylvania Avenue, was done over last year and the renovation completed in the late autumn.

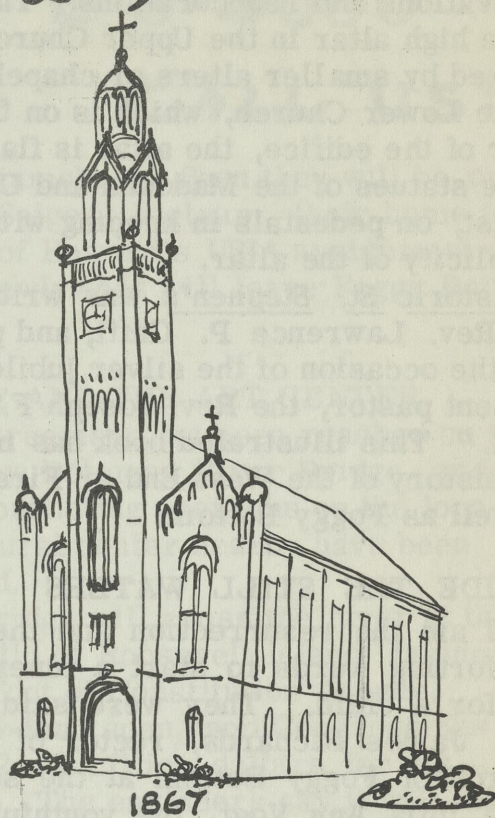

The house is built close to the ground with only a few steps up to the front door, which is a sparkling white with glass panels and shiny brass knobs. The two front parlors have been done in soft blue-green walls and wood work with brightly hued leather upholstery in the divan and chairs. The tall ceilings give room for very long windows where harmonizing draperies are hung. And the whole gives a feeling of warmth, welcome, and peace.

Msgr. Joseph F. Denges, pastor of St. Stephen's has only one assistant, Father Thomas S. Schaeffer, although their parishioners number close to the 2,000 mark. Thus masses are said hourly from 6 through 12 on Sundays with a late mass at 12:45, and on Holy Days at 6, 7, 8, 9, 11:15, 12 and 12:45, with two evening masses at 6:30 and 7:45. Daily masses are at 6:30 and 7:30.

Father Charles Ignatius White, pastor of "old" St. Matthew's Church, then at the corner of 15th and H Streets, N. W., saw the need for a church in the old First Ward, which included Foggy Bottom. In the middle 1860's, some 800 Catholics lived in that area, too far from St. Matthews' for comfort, there being only private carriages for transportation, or walking. So Archbishop Martin Spalding of Baltimore, which then included Washington in that diocese, directed Father White to select a site and establish a church.

The southeast corner of 25th and the Avenue was a part of "Mexico," a plantation first established by Robert Peter, a Scotsman whose family later moved to Tudor Place in Georgetown where his descendents still live. The deed for the property is dated June 24, 1865. The new structure was to be in Byzantine style of pressed brick, 53 by 115 feet, and was to have had a height of 53 feet. However, the steeple in the original plan (as shown in our sketch) has not been completed.

The early settlers in the northern portion of Foggy Bottom were Irish, who came to build some of the early structures of this capital. There were numbers of Italians, too, in the southeast portion of the parish, and to quote Historic St. Stephen's published in 1952, "The Irish came to build and the Italians to decorate."

The cornerstone was laid June 3, 1866 and parishioners of St. Matthew's marched from the old church at 15th and H to the site of St. Stephen's. They were led by the band of the Fifth Calvary under the leadership of Mr. Peters, followed by the clergy and then the laity.

St. Stephen's is the ninth parish to be established in Washington and the clergy of the other eight parishes were well represented in the procession to the ceremony. At the rear of the group of clergy were Father White and his assistant, the Rev. John McNally, who became the first rector of St. Stephen's.

Following the cornerstone laying Father White was host to clergy and distinguished visitors at "an elegant collation" in the rectory of "old" St. Matthew's.

Msgr. Denges is the eighth pastor to serve St. Stephen's and has been its leader since 1949. He is a native of Baltimore and, with his brother Peter, was elevated to the priesthood by Archbishop Curley, June 16, 1927. The brother now is the Very Rev. Pastor of St. Anthony's Church at Southern Pines, N. C., where their aged father, Henry Denges, now lives. Another brother, Father Q. Benedict Denges, has had a distinguished career in the Redemptorist Order. (Continued on page 4)

St. Stephen's -(Continued from page 3)

St. Stephen's already has had several renovations and redecorations. The handsome high altar in the Upper Church is flanked by smaller alters or chapels, and in the Lower Church, which is on the ground floor of the edifice, the altar is flanked by large statues of the Madonna and Child and Christ, on pedestals in keeping with the simplicity of the altar.

Historic St. Stephen's was written by the Rev. Lawrence P. Gatti, and published "on the occasion of the silver jubilee of the present pastor, the Rev. Joseph F. Denges, 1952." This illustrated book has much of the history of the West End or First Ward, as well as Foggy Bottom.

BESIDE THE STILL WATERS

"I am the resurrection and the life..." comforting words to start a funeral service for a child. They were said by the Rev. James Richards, rector of St. Paul's Church of Foggy Bottom at the service for little Julia Ann Vogt, the youthful victim of a lion in the Zoo.

Little Julia's aunt, Mrs. Margaret Hood, is a member of St. Paul's and 2-year-old Julia with her mother Mrs. Benjamin Vogt and sister, 4-year-old Judy, were visiting her when the tragedy occurred.

The brief service was held in the Chapel of the Holy Angels in St. Paul's with only members of the family and one or two close friends attending. The service in the Episcopal Prayer Book at the death of a child also contains the very comforting Twenty-Third Psalm.

The visitors had come from their home in Chilliwack, British Columbia, and Mr. Vogt joined his family as quickly as a plane could get him here after the accident. In the small company present also was Mr. Harry Jackson, father of Mrs. Hood and Mrs. Vogt, who took the little girls to the Zoo for a happy outing that fatal day.

Little Judy accompanied the family to the Church but stayed in the nursery with Mrs. Rosetta Dutch, wife of the sexton, Lloyd Dutch. Mrs. Dutch was one of the early officers of the Foggy Bottom Restoration Association. K. M. B.

5 SMITHSONIAN STAFF MEMBERS LIVE IN FOGGY BOTTOM

Anthropology, history, and botany are scientific fields represented by the 5 members of the Smithsonian Institution staff who live in Foggy Bottom. Acting Head Curator of the Department of Botany is the title of Conrad V. Morton, 830 N. Hampshire, and ferns are his special interest. Velva Rudd, another botanist, is associate curator. She works in the herbarium and does research on plants of the bean family. Velva lives in Hughes

NOW THE YOUNG DAPPLED FAWN

By Daniel Whitehead Hicky

Now the young dappled fawn comes down to drink
Beside the waking stream, his coat as clear
With sprinkled flakes of white as though the snow
In its late winter hurry had left them there.

He turns to right, then left, on steady legs.
As winds may brush a cloud, his slow eyes
pass
Bewildered from bough to bough and budding leaf;
The world is mirrored in their amber glass.

Frightened, he turns away and seeks the forest.

Was it a falling leaf, the blossoming
Of the first Judas bloom? On, on, he leaps
Through the green alders, alone, younger than Spring.

RUBY'S PRAYERS WERE HEARD

A 9  $\frac{1}{2}$  -pound baby girl was born to Ruby and Possum (Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas) Carter, Saturday, June 7. She was delivered by Caesarean section. Mother and baby are fine, and Ruby is happy that a daughter was given her, in answer to her prayers. She also thanks her Foggy Bottom friends for the baby things they sent. Christening will be at St. Stephen's as soon as mother is able to carry baby around the corner to the church. Baby's name is Diane Christine. The Carters live at 944 - 25th Street.

GOING ON VACATION ?

Before you leave for your vacation be sure to call Precinct Number 3 (Dial NA 8-4000). Our police officers on duty in Foggy Bottom will give special attention to your premises during your absence if you let them know in advance through Headquarters. And don't forget to stop your paper and to have your telephone put on vacation rate and your mail forwarded.

NEWCOMERS

Virginia Robards has bought the Packer house, 915 Hughes Court. She moved in the first Saturday in June. Jenny was with Navy overseas for 9 years, but is now with State, stationed in the Main building, 21st and Virginia Avenue.

Duryee and Nan Van Wagenen bought Hunter and Shirley Kennard's house, 2423 I St., and will move in as soon as the Kennards vacate. Nan is radiologist at George Washington Hospital, and Duryee is with the Bureau of the Census. The Kennards bought a house in the Chevy Chase Circle neighborhood, 4011 Thornapple St., N. W., Washington 15, D. C. and moved into it a couple of weeks ago. But Shirley has consented to continue as our Art Editor, praise God! The new Kennard telephone is OL-2-7305.

Wilfred Morin bought the house at 2416 I St., owned by George MacGill and Leonard Boykin. Wilfred has lately taken a job with the U. S. Office of Education. He was formerly with the N. Y. State Board of Education.

Robert McLaughlin is renting the new house at 826 25th St. Robert is the owner of a trucking business.

Paul McVey has rented 913 Green's Ct. His line is public relations and advertising.

NEWLY WEDS HAVE ASSIGNMENT IN SAIGON

Howard Neuberg carried his bride, Rosemary, across the threshold of his Foggy Bottom home, 919 Hughes Court, Saturday afternoon, June 7 -- they had been married just 10 minutes. The wedding took place at St. Luke's Methodist Church, the Rev. Edward Latch performing the rites. The bride is the former Miss Rosemary Davis, of Champagne, Ill. Her matron of honor was Mrs. Joyce Tucker. Howard's best man was his younger brother Roy. Howard and Rosemary had a brief honeymoon at Williamsburg. Soon they will be on their way to Saigon, Vietnam, their home for the duration of Howard's USIA assignment out there. The newlyweds will leave Foggy Bottom July 3.

THE BRIDGE AND THE ART CENTER

At last, agreement has been reached on the site of the new Potomac River Bridge, and apparently conflicting positions on the location of a cultural center nearby have been compromised.

The new bridge will cross the river at the downstream tip of Roosevelt Island, taking off near the foot of Constitution Avenue. It's to be a 6-lane span, and Congress has authorized $24.5 million dollars for its construction. The engineers say it will take about 2½ years to complete.

The proposed cultural center isn't as far along as the bridge, but at least the planners are agreed on its location. That is the land, comprising about 9 acres, along Rock Creek and Potomac Parkway just north of the proposed new bridge. The area extends north to New Hampshire and east to 26th as far as E Street, including part of the block on the east side of 26th between E and F.

The proposed cultural center is planned to consist of an opera house and concert hall to be built on the tract, which is largely owned by the Federal Government. Legislation to authorize the center has been drafted in Congress by Senator J. William Fulbright (of Fulbright Fellowship fame) and Representative Frank Thompson, Jr., and the Senate Public Works Committee has already approved it.

Last year, a larger site -- 27 acres -- was staked out by planners northeast of the location now proposed. This was the plot favored by the District Auditorium Commission. The Senate approved legislation authorizing it, but the House killed the bill.

WE RECOMMEND * * *

Several members of our Association have asked us to start a column to list people who can be depended on to do reliable jobs of one kind or another--men and women, boys and girls, whom your neighbors in Foggy Bottom will recommend on the basis of experience. To start the column off we publish here the names and telephone numbers of people so far recommended, with the names and telephones of Foggy Bottom residents who vouch for them. Others are invited. None that we list conflict with the services of our advertisers, all of whom we endorse and urge you to patronize.

CARPENTRY, PAINTING, AND GENERAL REPAIR. John Gillispie. RAndolph 3-8648.

John helped to restore many of the houses in Foggy Bottom and knows how they are put together. He's competent, industrious, and dependable. On a job he keeps an exact record of the time he puts in and of materials used. He gets discount rates on materials from supply houses and passes on the saving to people who employ him. John is willing to work all hours, early and late, Saturdays and Sundays. He charges the regular going rate for his time, no extras for overtime. Recommended by Benita Belden and Sara Reese, FE 3-2806.

TELEVISION, RADIO, CAR RADIO AND HIFI. John Sis. JUpiter 8-4133.

John does his work in spare time from his regular job--he has his shop in the basement of his home. He's Senior Fire Alarm Operator for the District of Columbia--takes all fire and ambulance calls, working on 8-hour shifts that rotate round the clock. Off official duty and on his own, he will call at your house and repair equipment on the spot if the work can be done there; otherwise he will take the job home. Usually work taken home requires a week or 10 days to finish, but it's guaranteed. His rates are reasonable--he charges for his time and actual cost of materials, no overhead. His wife or one of his five sons will take calls when he is not at home. Recommended by Charley Rogers, FE 3-3157.

BABY SITTERS

Ruth Thomas DE 2-2569

(Call before noon for evening engagement)

Mrs. Charles Miller(a widow) FE 3-5132

Delta Tan Delta House EX 3-9383

These baby sitters were all recommended by Shirley Kennard before she moved away from Foggy Bottom. Shirley tells us that people usually don't share baby sitters' numbers, not even with their best friends--they're held a closely guarded secret. She released her list only because she can't use it in far-away Chevy Chase. For further information call Shirley, OL 2-7305.

CLEANING WOMAN. Agnes Lomax. LI 6-8960

Agnes Lomax has worked for Dottie Cascioni for almost two years. She worked for two years for Virginia Spence, former occupant of 910 - 25th, who is now in Greece. Both found her reliable. If for any reason she can't come, she sends her sister. She feels the loss of the two days work that she did for Mrs. Spence and is eager to find more work in the neighborhood. She is free now on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. She charges $3. for a half day, plus carfare. Recommended by Dottie Cascioni, FE 3-1463.

FIREWOOD. Jack Peyton. OL 6-6765

To keep the fires going in your fireplace next winter try Jack Peyton who lives out in Montgomery County. Jack will deliver any amount or kind of firewood, and in addition you will witness real family co-operation, as all of the Peytons help out--6 boys! The team work of the family will warm your heart as much as the firewood will warm your toes. Reasonable prices. The McGraths, we believe, first brought the Peyton group to the Bottom. Recommended by George MacKinnon, FE 2-2134.

FOGGY BOTOOM LIBRARY SITE

Foggy Bottom is included in the $145.5 million recommended to Congress by the District Commissioners for public works during the next 6 years. The Commissioners recommended $2.1 million for branch library buildings for Tenley-Friendship, Fort Davis, Benning, and Southwest, and for library sites for Capital View and Foggy Bottom.

MOUNTED "MAYOR" RODE SMART MOUNT

One of our best known police officers of older days was Pat Creigh, sometimes called the "Mayor of Foggy Bottom." His mount was trained to break up crowds. A mighty smart horse he was--he would use his teeth to hold a prisoner by the coat collar till Officer Creigh took the culprit into custody.

FLAG AND FLAGPOLE AT REDUCED PRICE

Mrs. Emily Cooper, 2521-K St., is offering special rates on flags and flagpoles to raise money for her church. She has them from $3.60 up, depending on size of flag and length of pole. You can call at her home and see samples between 7 and 9 p.m., or call her by telephone -- FE 3-1858 or FE 3-1840.

BOTTOMS UP TO KATE!

"Well, guess I'll live to be 100!" declared Kate Scott Brooks as she celebrated the 96th anniversary of her birth May 24. Kate shares an apartment with her daughter Katherine at 2123 I St.

Widow of Hobart Brooks a leading political writer of his day, who always wanted to live in Foggy Bottom, Kate started out as a girl to be a singer. When she came to Washington to live in the early 1880's she became the leading church and oratorio soprano of this section, appearing as soloist with the Georgetown Orchestra, at the music festivals in Petersburg and Richmond, Virginia, and at the time of her marriage, was engaged by the Bostonians, a light opera company, as its leading soprano.

But Kate gave up professional singing when she married, and some years later started her career in newspaper work. She first was music editor of the Washington Post, then of The Evening Star. Following that she was society editor and music critic of the Washington Times, and in its second year of existence held the same post on the Washington Herald. In later years she was society editor of the Washington Post.

During all of these years she was Washington society correspondent for the Baltimore Sun, New York Sun, Cleveland Plain Dealer, Indianapolis News, Boston Herald, Buffalo Times, Kansas City Star, and Chicago Tribune. She claims that "Social Security got her" for after the law went into effect her last two papers, the Chicago Tribune, for which she was doing daily telegraphic news, and the Cleveland Plain Dealer a Sunday letter, discontinued her services. She then was 75.

She was a charter member and first president of the Rubinstein Club, a chorus of 100 women conducted by a woman, and later honorary president. She also was an organizing member and first president of of the American Newspaper Women's Club and now is its honorary president.

For eleven years she lived in the Plaza Apartments on Washington Circle, moving only when evicted after the building was sold to make way for George Washington University Hospital.

Celebrating her 96th birthday May 24 she shared honors at dinner with her cousin William D. Wrightson whose birthday -- though many years younger -- is May 25.

180 CHILDREN IN BOTTOM SCHOOL

Foggy Bottom Town Hall, the meeting place of our Association, during the past year, is also the educational center of the Bottom -- Briggs-Montgomery School. The distinguished appearing gentleman who greets us on meeting nights is the school engineer-custodian, Paul Shackelford. About 180 pupils attended the 6 grades and kindergarten this year. Last year there were 215.

All the teachers are women, half of them married.

Mrs. Dorothy H. Featherstone teaches Grade 5-6; Miss Minnie L. Anderson, Grade 4-5; Miss Lillian J. Larkin, Grade 3-4; Mrs. Althea J. Williams, Grade 2-3; Miss Frances T. Benson, Grade 1-2; Miss Evelyn D. Tymous, First grade; and Mrs. Geraldine B. Price, Kindergarten.

Mrs. Mary H. McKay is principal of the school and her 2 clerks are Mrs. Ella Waterman and Mrs. Blanche Eisenberg.

TOM CARTER-CHIEF COOK AT WATER GATE

Tom Carter rose from pot washer to Chief Cook at Water Gate Inn, the post he held at his retirement a year ago. He died June 2, age 62.

Marjory Hendricks early discovered in Tom a rare genius for seasoning, taught him how to adapt his talents to Pennsylvania Dutch cooking, the specialty at Water Gate. Tom fathered 16 children. The eldest, Charles Thomas "Possum" of Foggy Bottom, will share a substantial legacy with his mother.

The Sheriff Says —

... That PEPCO really spent a lot of time and money on those new transformers they put in in the 900 block of 26th Street... that the BROWNS live in a PINK house in GREENS Court... that Bob at Rhineharts filling station is as good as Tippy at the wea ther... that the steel in the Peoples Life building is rising so high that it may snare that copter, which wont displease some people... that the McGraths did not go to Princeton... that the little garden beside 2515 Eye Street may be lost lwhen Mr. Kuhn starts to build... that Marjorie Hendricks does not have a mirror in her patio... tha t Henry Sheleski got the District to put the brick sidewalk back' / back in front of his place... that the Elise lobby does not serve as a studio for the movies... that you cannot park free under the Alamac... that Bens corner sure looks empty... that the Bobbitt-Brain child is developing... that 25th and Virginia Avenue will have a traffic lite by fall... that Bill at the S & W will not give a prize for the best name for the color of his store... that there is monkey business in the 2600 block of K Street... that no one dares to try our method for crossing in 25th and K---but some come close with their summer clothes... that it is agin the law to park in front of any apartment house--sign or no sign... that we hope you all have a nice summer.....
